2. Pursuant to request made in your letter of September 15, 1955, for a decision on our part as to whether or not we desire to have you continue to provide fire protection service for an additional period of time beginning October 31, 1955, we hope to be able to advise you on this matter very soon. In the interim we desire to keep your proposal open. In the event the other arrangements we are attempting to establish cannot be set up, we will request that you continue to furnish fire protection for an additional period of time.
